REPORT ON MISSIONS.

We are glad to say the spirit of missions is increasing among our people. We see from the reports from the different churches that there are but few who take and read religious papers, yet we are not surprised and cannot heartily recommend them when they are filled up with advertisements and other reading matter. Therefore we urge that they give us a strictly religious paper. We recommend the Southern Baptist literature for our Sunday Schools. J. H. BROWN, Ch'mn.

REPORT ON INSTITUTE WORK.

That we, as your committee, are convinced of the due importance of the Institute work, and recommend that it be fostered by this Association and receive our prayers, sympathy and contributions of money. ## REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We believe that intemperance and the use of intoxicating liquors is but slightly on the decrease among our churches. We are sorry to say that it is yet very annoying to Christian progress in some parts, and we believe that if Christian workers would become more interested in God's work and not endorse liquor in any form, that intemperance would be done away with to a great extent.
